Hello Lisa and Candice,

I have reviewed the documents provided and authorise RCMP to proceed with the issuance of the call-up with Bradley Air Services.

Please ensure you have the proper date on the call-up as it states 27th of Feb.

Should you have any question, feel free to call Dominik.

Hello

Attached is the drafted Call-up and search result.

Can you confirm that all call-ups above 100K will need to go to you for review/approval? Because we are trying to get flights out today and tomorrow, can we request a delegated increase in the financial limitation up to 400K?

Thank you

Hello Candice,

Per Q1, I trust you are on top of this now.

Now, please submit the search results (granted you have performed a search) and the drafted call-up form, so that I can then review to approve.

Thank you,

Hi Dominik

We have a charter flight scheduled to leave today at noon (from BC). I received the attached quote.

1. We are having difficulties confirming prices/firm rates based on the standing offer pricing. We are unable to download the zip documents. Is there someplace else we should be looking?
2. The value of the charter exceeds $100K. Based on the Standing Offer. Can we request a delegated increase in the financial limitation from you for this particular call-up.

Thank you

Candice Therien

Back with you Candice –

To confirm, this NMSO instructs all users as to how to proceed with respect to section 7A.8 (Call-up procedures). See attached (Amend 007 RFSO (...)) for all details. While this e-mail will outline the basic elements, it remains consistent that you must refer to the latter section (7A.8) and its subordinate content, at all times.

You should access the Catalogue for Air Charter Services website to find the Standing Offers (SO) included in the National Master Standing Offer for Air Charter Services (NMSO for ACS). Based on your Statement of Work (SOW), you would perform a Search by Fixed Wing to find the suppliers (aka Offerors) that meet your SOW requirements. Then you would select your offeror by following the Call-up Procedures detailed in the NMSO for ACS terms and conditions (see below). Note: for any instance of 50+ passenger requests, please enter "0" (zero) so that you can retrieve any capable offerors

As you will see on the Catalogue for Air Charter Services website, if you click on menu item Terms and Conditions (T&C) it redirects you to where you can find those T&C, when it states:

The terms and conditions applicable to a Standing Offer or a Call-up against a Standing Offer (the Contract) are those included in the latest amendment posted under "Solicitation Documents" in the Air Charter Services \(E60SQ-020001/B\) Tender Notice, as Part 7 - Standing Offer and Resulting Contract Clauses, and all Annexes.

So, if you go to (click on) that tender notice, you will see, half way down the resulting page, a list of solicitation documents. As stated above, the terms and conditions are included in the latest amendment posted there, which is currently Amendment 007 (including its attachments in Attachment File en_amend_007_e60sq-020001_b.zip). And the T&C are included in that zipped folder in the document Amend 007 RFSO-NMSO for ACS.pdf, and specifically Part 7 - Standing Offer and Resulting Contract Clauses, and all Annexes.

Thank you so much for the quick reply.

If you have the full instructions for the use of the Standing Offer, can you please send them to me. We are concerned that the urgent requests may come in sometime this weekend and we want to ensure we have all required information readily available.

Thank you

Objet : Air charter service question

Hi Dominik

Hope all is well. My name is Candice Therien. I am a procurement officer with the RCMP. We are currently working on several urgent requirements to assist with the blockades in Ottawa. It's quite possible that we may have urgent last minute requirements this week for Air Charter Services. Several years ago we were provided the attached template to use when issuing an RFQ against the Standing Offer. This template is now probably outdated. Are you able to send me the link to where I can find the most recent RFQ templates and links to the catalogue for Air Charter Services?

Thank you!
